 - b. Participants Introductions: 18 members present. Sign in sheet passed around (see below)
- II. Andy Kia-chun Chaang:
 - a. Teaching and Learning Council representative – No nominees for the Osbourn Outstanding Teaching Award. All teaching awards are now officially reviewed by the Teaching and Learning Council. Andy will be proactive to make sure the Community College section is aware of the call for 2022 nominations.
 - b. <https://www.natcom.org/academic-professional-resources/teaching-and-learning> To find out more information on the Osborn Teaching Award.
 - c. We need Community College folks to self-nominate to be on the Teaching and Learning Council. It is a three-year term. Every February there is a retreat to set up the plan for the upcoming year.
- III. Elections – 4-year term Vice Chair Elect – 2-year term Secretary
 - a. Nomination for Secretary – Kirt Shineman accepted and approved
 - b. Amanda Pettigrew spoke at the Virtual Meeting for Vice-Chair Elect
 - c. Robert Becker spoke at this meeting.
 - d. Elections will take place online. Candidates (platforms and qualifications) will be posted and sent out to members. Elections will open on Monday Nov 29th and close Sunday December 5th. Ballot should come as an email.
 - e. Social Gathering Information: Hard Rock Café 116 Pike Street 2nd floor of the building. 6:30pm to 8:30pm Venmo @atodd-jones-1 $40 or more – gets an A Todd Print!
- IV. Planners Meeting – 11/17/21 NCA - New Orleans Nov 17-20, 2022
 - a. Theme: Honoring Place: People, Liberation, Advocacy, Community and Environment
 - b. NCA is looking for more creative ideas for the convention and for panels – if you have any “out of the box” ideas – let John Nash know.
 - c. The Community College Section will get 12 slots – slots determined by the number of members who attends panels in past years.
 - d. A pre-con business meeting “might” be allowed to replace the in-person business meeting at the 2022 NCA. It is in the works. More to come if it is approved.
 - e. We can also submit to the “Theme Submission” section GIFTS or Short Courses for more slots.
 - f. There will be virtual ½ day pre-con sessions.
 - g. January 10th opens submissions – March 30th closes submissions
 - h. Looking for reviewers – if interested please contact John Nash nash@morainevalley.edu

- V. Ideas: We will be sent form on Google doc that we can all edit
 - a. Isa sent 8 ideas into the Google doc (focus on hard to teach concepts – getting more under graduates involved)
 - b. Pitt Bulls and Parolees – Located in New Orleans – ideas to go into the community.
 - c. Listening concepts
 - d. Students with disabilities concepts
 - e. Reaching out to inmate populations (they get frightened to speak in public too)
 - f. Facilitating difficult conversations in the classroom so teachers are not cancelled
 - g. Dueling Pianos forum
 - h. Looking at the persuasiveness of casinos in New Orleans
 - i. Toxicity Tour
 - j. Rhet Crit – looking at the push for free community college – messaging and language around this concept. This was taken out of the “Build Back Better” plan. Tracing the history of Community College – does “free” make us “less than?”
 - k. Dialogue between new and veteran faculty co-sponsored with Emeritus Divisions
 - l. Using P.L.A.C.E. to see how C.C.s help groups
 - m. Voo Doo panels
