Call for Nominations/Applications:
Journal of International and Intercultural Communication Editor-Elect
Assuming duties in 2023; overseeing 2024-2026 volumes

During 2022, NCA's Publications Council will nominate an Editor-Elect (or co-Editors-Elect) for the Journal of International and Intercultural Communication. The newly appointed Editor will begin processing manuscripts early in 2023 and will oversee the volumes for 2024-2026. The journal is published four times each year.

Editors of NCA journals occupy a particularly prominent leadership position in the field. In naming editorial boards, selecting reviewers for manuscripts, and making final publication decisions (among other duties), they make a vitally important contribution to the discipline, and they play a key role in maintaining the highest standards of integrity and scholarly inquiry.

Position statement on the teaching, scholarly/creative activity, and service value of editing an NCA journal.

The Journal of International and Intercultural Communication (JIIC) is a peer-reviewed publication of the National Communication Association. JIIC publishes original scholarship that expands understanding of international, intercultural, and cross-cultural communication. Widely interdisciplinary, JIIC features diverse perspectives and methods, including qualitative, quantitative, critical, and textual approaches to intellectual inquiry*.*

Todd L. Sandel, University of Macau, is the current Editor.

Editor Support:
Editors receive an annual stipend of $16,000 from NCA, and administrative and editorial support from our publisher, Taylor & Francis.

Considered Criteria:
In selection of journal editors, the following criteria will be considered:
1. Relevant research profile
2. Relevant editorial experience
3. Relevant project management experience
4. Innovative vision for the journal

Requirements:

Editors must be members of NCA at the time of their appointment and must maintain membership in the Association throughout their editorial terms. Editors should plan to attend all NCA conventions from the time they are elected until they have completed their terms.

Editors also must:

1) Agree to observe and support NCA's publication policies.
2) Commit to using the Taylor & Francis online system for manuscript submission, review, and editing.
3) Commit to adhering to the NCA Policy on Affirmative Action and Nondiscrimination and the NCA Statement on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.
4) Commit to meeting editorial deadlines.

Application Process:

Self-nominations are welcome.

Applicants/Nominators should develop a letter that addresses the following:
1) A commitment from the nominee to serve if elected.
2) Editorial plans and projections for the journal, including the nominee's vision for content direction within the established mission of the journal.
3) A commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion.
4) If a co-editorship is proposed, a description of how the work will be managed.

In addition, application materials should include:
- A current curriculum vita.
- A letter from the responsible administrator supporting the nomination and describing assistance to be provided by the institution.
- Names and contact information for three people who can serve as references in support of the applicant/nominee.

Letters and supporting materials should be sent to:
