

GEOGRAPHIC DISTRIBUTION OF ADVERTISEMENTS FOR ACADEMIC COMMUNICATION JOB OPENINGS

In 2015, 802 academic Communication job openings were advertised in NCA outlets (the NCA Career Center, the CRTNET listserv, and Spectra magazine). Within the United States, institutions in the Central region had posted the most advertisements (221), followed by the Eastern (195), Western (178), and Southern (157) regions of the country.

The figures below show the geographic distribution of the 802 academic Communication job advertisements. Each state is grouped within its regional Communication association; percentages represent the proportion of job listings within the region.

Job Advertisements by Region

Note: Vermont and Wyoming are not included in the pie charts above because no job ads were posted by institutions in those states.
