NCA PLENARY LUNCHEON DEEP FAKES and HIGH STAKES

WHAT ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE MEANS FOR TRUST IN AMERICA

SEATED LUNCH
DISCUSSION with VIVIAN SCHILLER
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, ASPEN DIGITAL

Sponsored by NCA National Office

Saturday, November 18 | 12:30–1:45 p.m.
Cherry Blossom Ballroom (Hotel, Ballroom Level)

Registration Fee: $75

PLEASE ENSURE YOU HAVE YOUR NCA ATTENDEE BADGE FOR ENTRY.

As we head into a contentious election season, the trust crisis may be about to get much worse. Rapid advances in ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE activates and democratizes the means to easily generate and distribute content that can deceive with “deep fake” images, video, and audio. It will also unleash an unprecedented wave of personalized, targeted content, designed to influence the public. Some experts predict that AI-generated content could soon account for 99 percent or more of all information on the internet. What can we expect—and crucially what can be done?

VIVIAN SCHILLER

Vivian Schiller joined the Aspen Institute in January 2020 as Executive Director of Aspen Digital, which empowers policymakers, civic organizations, companies, and the public to be responsible stewards of technology and media in the service of an informed, just, and equitable world.

A longtime executive at the intersection of journalism, media and technology, Schiller has held executive roles at some of the most respected media organizations in the world. Those include: President and CEO of NPR; Global Chair of News at Twitter; General Manager of NYTimes.com; Chief Digital Officer of NBC News; Chief of the Discovery Times Channel, a joint venture of The New York Times and Discovery Communications; and Head of CNN documentary and long form divisions. Documentaries and series produced under her auspices earned multiple honors, including three Peabody Awards, four Alfred I. DuPont-Columbia University Awards, and dozens of Emmys.

Schiller is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations; and a Director of the Scott Trust, which owns The Guardian.

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

NCA First Vice President

Special Thanks from the First Vice President and Primary Program Planner

WELCOME TO THE 109TH ANNUAL NATIONAL COMMUNICATION ASSOCIATION CONVENTION! I am excited about the array of scholarship that will be presented at this year's Convention around the theme, Freedom. Communication plays a critical role in our understanding of what it means to be free. Through communication, we determine if we ourselves are free and create our personal and collective journeys to become or remain free. The convention theme allows us to challenge assumptions of what freedom means and offer solutions for individuals, groups, organizations, and societies to attain freedom.

There are a few plenary sessions to add to your calendars:

THE NCA OPENING SESSION, sponsored by the Waterhouse Family Institute, will occur on Thursday, November 16, at 5:00 p.m. in the Cherry Blossom Ballroom. This session will be moderated by Diane Forbes Berthoud, University of Maryland. Panelists include Marina Dzugoutov, Gallaudet University; Pallavi Kumar, American University School of Communication; Sean Luechtefeld, Johns Hopkins University; Cristal Chanelle Truscott, Northwestern University; and Tia Tyree, Howard University.

THE 2023 CARROLL C. ARNOLD DISTINGUISHED LECTURE will be delivered by E. Patrick Johnson, Northwestern University, on Friday, November 17, at 5:00 p.m. in the Cherry Blossom Ballroom His piece, "Performing Freedom in Troubled Times," will be accompanied by Howard University's Gospel Choir—you don't want to miss it!

THE NCA AWARDS CEREMONY, sponsored by Routledge, Taylor and Francis, follows the Presidential Address by Walid Afifi, University of California at Santa Barbara, "لنتخيل المستقبل سوياً" (Let us imagine our future together), on Saturday, November 20 at 5:00 p.m. in the Cherry Blossom Ballroom.

As a member of the current NCA Executive Committee, I have had the privilege of being a part of the discussion of our evolving discipline and I see this represented in the presentations at this year's Convention. The topics and methodologies presented during the Convention speak to the diversity, creativity, and brilliance in the Communication discipline, as well as to issues of access to freedom that are still prevalent within the field. So, in addition to attending as many sessions as possible, please attend the First Vice President-sponsored special sessions. These sessions join community groups and NCA Caucuses, and are centered around the convention theme of Freedom:

CRITICAL FREEDOM: CARIBBEAN PRESENCE IN THE MIDST OF A GLOBAL RECKONING

Sponsors: Caribbean Caucus and NCA First Vice President
November 17, 3:30 p.m., Potomac 1, Ballroom Level

CRITICAL FREEDOM: PLURIVERSAL PRESENCE AS AN ALTERNATIVE

Sponsors: Indigenous Caucus and NCA First Vice President
November 18, 11:00 a.m. Potomac 1, Ballroom Level

CRITICAL FREEDOM: LATINE IDENTITY, CULTURAL PRIDE, AND YOUTH SUCCESS

Sponsors: La Raza Caucus and NCA First Vice President
November 18, 2:00 p.m. Maryland D, Ballroom Level

I also invite you to attend the Children's Freedom Festival on the morning of Friday, November 17, and support local elementary school students as they present various forms of oral interpretation. And be sure to support our Pre-Conferences, Scholar to Scholar (poster sessions), Scholars Office Hours, Short Courses, Research-in-Progress Roundtables, and Great Ideas for Teaching Students (G.I.F.T.S.) sessions.

The artwork for the 2023 Convention was created by Washington, D.C. native and artist, Kristen Hayes-Campbell. This piece, titled, "Days Well Spent Series #2," overlaps space, movement, and color to demonstrate the freedom of giving life. The artist used acrylic, hand painted collage, and oil pastel to create this work during a time of self-restoration and transformation. Through an array of colors, she represents the hope of what freedom can be. It was important to me to use a piece like this for NCA, as it allowed me to really envision, in distinct hues, what the 2023 Convention can look like.

I want to thank a number of people for their support as I navigated my role as NCA's First Vice President. Executive Director Shari Miles-Cohen, your grand ideas for this conference have inspired me to also think bigger. Thank you for helping me with my vision for the Convention. Conventions and Meetings Director LaShawn Duckett, I appreciate our weekly meetings, your direction and organization, and matching me in my email response time. We have a great partnership, and I am grateful for you in this role! President Walid Afifi and Immediate Past President Roseann Mandzuick, thank you for setting great examples for me to follow. NCA's Executive Committee, I am always grateful for your feedback and suggestions. To my special series planners, Kesha Morant Williams, Jasmine T. Austin, Anthony Cuomo, Bobbi J. Van Gilder, Leslie J. Harris, Heather Harris, Clover Baker-Brown, Mohan Dutta, Rebecca De Souza, Qingwen Dong, Amber Johnson, and Melissa Harris, your willingness to serve, quick responses, proactive reminders, and overall helpfulness were appreciated. Finally, thank you to all of the unit planners for your diligence over the past year in making this convention a success.

Thank you all for your continued support.

See you around National Harbor,

Marnel Niles Goins

NCA HUB

Looking to connect with NCA? Look no further than the NCA Hub, located at exhibit hall booth #207. Here, you can connect with NCA staff and learn about the variety of resources available to you through the association. Whether you're a student, educator, or professional in the field of communication, the NCA Hub is the perfect place to learn about the latest developments in research, teaching, and practice.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE

The Graduate School Open House provides an opportunity to meet informally with representatives from various graduate programs. The Open House is open to all registered convention attendees. Departments must pre-register to participate. The Open House will be held Thursday, November 16, 1:00 – 4:00 p.m. in the Potomac Ballroom of the Gaylord.

NCA CAREER CENTER

The Career Center offers resources for members in all stages of an employment search. Job seekers can bring a copy of their CV to the CV Consulting Corner for feedback. Organizations with open positions gather at the Job Fair to meet prospective candidates. Organizations must pre-register to participate. The Career Center is open to all registered convention attendees. The Career Center will be held Friday, November 17, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m. in the Potomac Ballroom of the Gaylord.

ONLINE PROGRAM

The online program is available on NCA Convention Central in the Convention Program tab. You do not need to be logged in to view or search the online program.

PROGRAM CHANGES

Please consult the online convention program for schedule and session updates and changes. All reported program changes are posted live.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

NCA would like to acknowledge that the land on which we gather for the 109th Annual Convention in National Harbor, MD, is ancestral and unceded territory of various Indigenous Algonquian peoples—including the Piscataway, Nacotchtank, Nantaquak, Pamunkey, Mattaponi, Chickahominy, and Powhatan—past and present.

AREA OF RESCUE ASSISTANCE

An Area of Rescue Assistance (ARA) is available for your safety. Located near the National Harbor ballrooms, the ARA will be easily identifiable with clear signage. In case you have trouble finding it, simply reach out to the NCA staff, who will gladly assist you in locating the ARA.

To ensure everyone's well-being, the hotel staff will regularly check these designated areas for attendees who may require assistance during an emergency. Additionally, it is important to note that if a hotel evacuation occurs outside of convention hours, please follow the instructions of the GaylordSTARS and exit the building using the nearest exit.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION PLAN

In the event of a hotel evacuation, attendees should follow the evacuation plan outlined below:

1. Stay calm and listen for audible messages that will be played throughout the hotel and convention center with the appropriate instructions. The evacuation routes in the hotel and convention center vary depending on your location. There are signs posted in the hallways and stairwells that direct evacuees to a safe location. There are signs posted in the hallways and stairwells that direct evacuees to a safe location.

2. If you are in a session or meeting room, exit immediately and proceed to the nearest exit. GaylordSTARS will be available to assist and direct guests.
3. If you are in a hotel room, take your room key and exit the building using the nearest stairwell. GaylordSTARS will be available to assist and direct guests.
4. If you are in a common area, such as a restaurant or lobby, exit the building using the nearest exit. GaylordSTARS will be available to assist and direct guests.
5. Do not use elevators during an evacuation.
6. Once outside, proceed to the designated assembly area in the outer perimeter of the parking lot for further instructions from the hotel or emergency personnel.
7. Do not re-enter the building until instructed to do so by hotel or emergency personnel.

It is important to familiarize yourself with the emergency exits and assembly areas upon arrival at the convention center. If you require assistance during an evacuation, notify emergency personnel or hotel staff immediately. Stay calm and follow the instructions provided by staff members to ensure your safety during an emergency evacuation.

In the event of a city-wide evacuation, information will be posted to the NCA Convention Website (www.natcom.org/convention) and sent via email to registered attendees. Alerts and real-time updates will be posted to NCA Convention Central for mobile users. Website posts and alerts will include action information as well as the location of a central gathering place to receive more information and instruction.

ALL GENDER RESTROOM

The all gender restroom is available for guests to utilize regardless of gender identity or expression. The designated restroom in the Gaylord is located on the Ballroom Level just before the Potomac Ballrooms. The facility is marked with signage at the entrance.

LACTATION ROOM

A lactation room is available in the Dressing Room A. This room has been designated for nursing mothers and will be marked with clear signage for easy identification. Please go to the NCA Registration Desk for more information.

QUIET ROOM

National Harbor 9 (National Harbor Level) and Mezzanine 6 (Lobby Level) at the Gaylord are available as a quiet area for attendees. These rooms should not be used for meetings, phone calls, interviews, etc.

ACCESSIBILITY

There will be a wheelchair/scooter charging station located in the Exhibit Hall at the Gaylord. Large print versions of this program are available at the registration desk. Should you need any assistance while onsite, please contact a member of the NCA National Office staff at the registration desk or email convention@natcom.org.

POLICY GOVERNING THE RECORDING OF CONVENTION SESSIONS AND/OR EVENTS

The recording, rebroadcasting, or reproducing of any NCA convention session or event is prohibited without the approval of NCA. Any presenter of a session or event recorded by NCA will be notified ahead of time and asked to complete a release form.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All registrants of the Annual Convention agreed to the Convention Anti-Harassment Code of Conduct. Harassment can include use of sexual and/or discriminatory language, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, bullying behavior, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

To report a concern, please send an email to codeofconduct@natcom.org. If you experience or witness behavior that constitutes an immediate or serious threat to public safety, or if you believe that you have been physically assaulted during the convention, please dial 911 and report the incident to law enforcement officials.

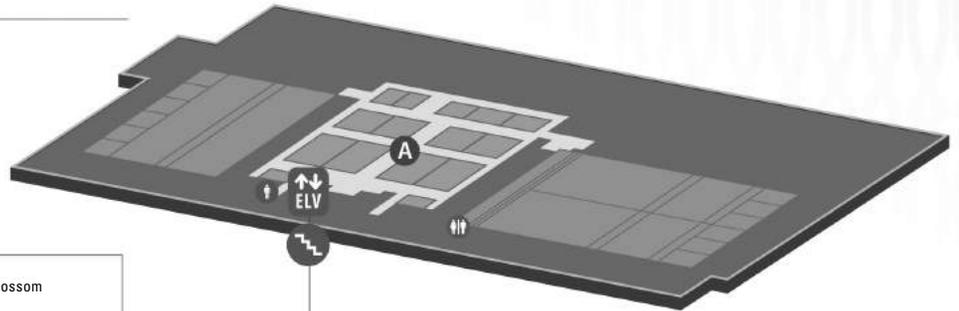

BYSTANDER INTERVENTION

The American Sociological Association has created the following resource on bystander intervention strategies, which addresses ways to intervene when witnessing sexual misconduct in workplace settings: bit.ly/asa-bystander-intervention.

JOIN OUR THOUGHT-PROVOKING OPENING SESSION as we explore the transformative potential of this freedom and the essential role of communication in shaping it, by not only widening the pathway, but changing the world. (Stanton-Salazar, 2011).

Our panelists will delve into Communication's pivotal role in preparing the next generation of scholars to partner with individuals and communities to enhance capabilities and explore ways to catalyze individual and collective transformation. From amplifying diverse voices to promoting inclusion or diversity or providing equitable access to education and resources, communication has the potential to unlock the full spectrum of human potential.

In this lecture, Johnson draws on performance as a site of political engagement with the struggle for freedom. From individual acts of resistance to social movements, Johnson will demonstrate how embodied ways of knowing have historically and contemporaneously functioned as a productive strategy toward social, cultural, and political freedom.

College of Media
& Communication™

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

- Funded assistantship positions available (in teaching, research, or debate team coaching) upon application.
- Choose from multiple master's degree programs as well as flexibility in face-to-face and online formats.
- The TTU Media & Communication doctorate explores both social scientific and humanistic approaches to human communication research. Our Ph.D. students work with internationally-recognized faculty to create knowledge in both the broad area of human communication and in specialty research areas such as science communication, political communication, interactive/entertainment, and rhetoric to name a few. Graduates of our program are positioned to be leaders of research and teaching in the university setting, the private sector, for the government, and for non-profit organizations. Generous funding packages support students throughout their three to four years of study.

CHILDREN'S FREEDOM FESTIVAL

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17 | 10:00 am–1:00 p.m.
Maryland A (Convention Center, Ballroom Level)

THE CHILDREN'S FREEDOM FESTIVAL CELEBRATES communication performance and introduces elementary school students to oral interpretation. Students from the Washington, DC area will present stories, poems, and songs of their choosing to demonstrate their conceptualization of freedom to a live audience, with NCA members serving as judges. The Festival provides a safe and inclusive space for students to garner public speaking experience and promote self-expression and confidence.

EARN YOUR DEGREE IN SUNNY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

PH.D. IN COMMUNICATION

Our three-year program prepares students to: conduct both qualitative and quantitative social science research, teach at the university level and write successful grants for research funding. Students work with faculty whose research impacts the field to pursue their own research interests.

Areas of emphasis include:

- Interpersonal Communication
- Health and Strategic Communication
- Media and Communication Technology

MS IN HEALTH AND STRATEGIC COMMUNICATION

In the MS program, students study effective strategic communication to understand the role of purposeful messaging in promoting positive health outcomes, and they learn research skills to assess the impact of this messaging.

ASSISTANTSHIPS OFFERED

Ph.D. and MS students can apply for teaching assistantships that cover the cost of tuition and pay a stipend. Other assistantships, including research assistantships, and fellowships are available to help defray the cost of tuition.

PH.D. IN COMMUNICATION

GRADUATE TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIPS AVAILABLE

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 15

Wayne State University's Department of Communication offers advanced study in media and communication studies, with internationally-renowned faculty who study and teach in areas such as gender and race representations, media effects, media framing, rhetoric, political communication, and risk and crisis communication across many different media platforms. We also offer a dual-title degree in Communication and Urban Sustainability. Our location in the heart of Detroit provides students with unique opportunities to study and practice in a community full of possibilities.

Be at the forefront of the communication revolution.

At USC Annenberg, we prepare you for a vast array of careers in academia and industry that benefit from the research skills and the expansive knowledge of communications processes, institutions and impact on society that you will gain while studying in the heart of one of the cultural capitals of the world — Los Angeles.

Our graduates excel as university instructors, conducting original research and scholarship that advances knowledge in the field, and in their efforts as public and private sector employees, ranging from working in media and entertainment industries to governmental and non-governmental organizations.

STOP BY THE NORTON COMMUNICATION BOOTH #101!

100 years of independent, employee-owned publishing,
now serving Communication Studies

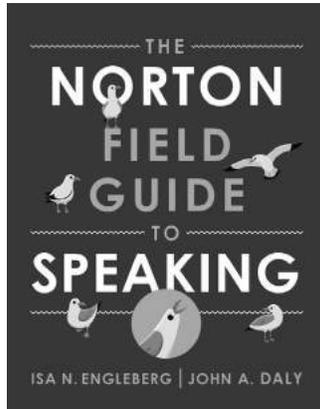

Contemporary Public Speaking

Pat Gehrke • Megan Foley

A critical guide for speaking in a diverse, digital world

Contemporary Public Speaking builds students' strengths as speakers, inviting them to view their intersectional identities as the very strengths that give them power and purpose in public speaking.

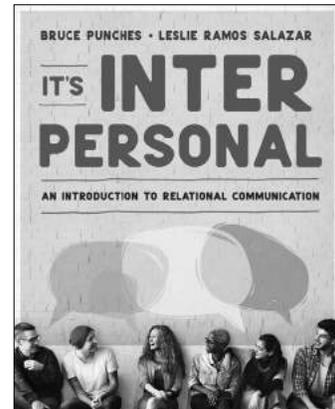

The Norton Field Guide to Speaking

Isa Engleberg • John Daly

A uniquely flexible and teachable guide to speaking

The Norton Field Guide to Speaking offers students the kind of helpful advice and encouragement found in leading full-length textbooks in a user-friendly, easily referenced field guide format.

It's Interpersonal: An Introduction to Relational Communication

Bruce PUNCHES • Leslie Ramos Salazar

A relatable, applied introduction to interpersonal communication skills

Written in a friendly and conversational style and filled with relatable examples, pop-culture references, and application-focused pedagogy, It's Interpersonal motivates students to improve their own interpersonal communication skills and apply course content to their own lives.

CELEBRATE WITH US!

Join us and our authors:

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17 • 3PM-4PM

NCA 110TH ANNUAL CONVENTION CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

“Communication for Greater Regard”
November 21–24, 2024 New Orleans, Louisiana

Jeanetta D. Sims

NCA Second Vice President
University of Central Oklahoma

AS WE CELEBRATE THE 110TH ANNIVERSARY OF NCA ANNUAL CONVENTIONS, the 2024 Convention theme calls us to convene around “Communication for Greater Regard.” Regard is a word of Old French origin and is connected historically to New Orleans by the city’s fertile French roots—making this remarkable city an ideal location for learning, discussing, and contemplating communication for greater regard. Greater regard is a process of cultivating care and concern; that which we regard is deemed important, granted value, and given consideration. To be a “regarder” is to be one who watches, takes notice, and is expressive, often by increasing with thoughtful intensity amid a climate where less use of regard is occurring.

Communication is both the conduit and manifestation for greater regard. For our 110th Annual Convention, we invite thought-provoking papers, panels, pre-conferences, posters, and programming that engage the three-fold nature of our collective, magnificent stewardship of communication for greater regard: (1) greater regard for what has been before us, (2) greater regard for what is presently around us, and (3) greater regard for what will be beyond us. A variety of questions and approaches, which are often both complementary and competing, exist for exploring this theme including: What does it seem the discipline has regarded for 100+ years? How does communication function in today’s climate to enrich greater regard, how has this shifted over the years, or does it need to shift in the future? How is greater regard currently exhibited in communication research, teaching, service, and practice? How are priorities and power structures shaped in the discipline and/or in human communication endeavors through greater regard or to create greater regard? What intentional contributions should we be actively undertaking to foster greater regard?

An extension of “Communication for Greater Regard” is examining when and how communication functions with disregard. Thus, this Call also invites conversations about what has been ignored, dismissed, or devalued in our discipline alongside investigating what should be given more consideration. The convention theme is inclusive of submissions designed to foster a steady, significant look at what has been/is being disregarded.

Our 110th convention logo celebrates this year’s theme and NCA’s robust history with deep symbolism. The variety of colors represent calmness, intelligence, honesty, creativity, exploration, growth, adventure, power, hope, nobility, and optimism—all attributes of greater regard. NCA 2024 at the core acknowledges 109 years of past annual convention programming reaching out into the future as a reminder to advance the Association vision and avoid mission drift. The bold, bright shape of a sun reflects the broad array of Association and member diversity, influence, and impact while depicting space for what has been disregarded, missed, or is yet to come. The pattern of the sun resembles our technologically networked world as a preview of future virtual learning opportunities that connect members and non-members to one another and to NCA.

Thank you for the honor of serving you and our Association. I look forward to seeing you next year in New Orleans, which will be 30 years since my first NCA convention that was held in the same city. As communication scholars, educators, and practitioners, we must continue to be “regarders” who hold space for conversations that probe what greater regard and disregard look like in 2024 and beyond.

Jeanetta D. Sims
Second Vice President

ABOUT NCA

The National Communication Association (NCA) aims to advance Communication scholarship, teaching, and practice to foster a better world. The NCA serves the scholars, teachers, and practitioners who are its members by enabling and supporting their professional interests in research and teaching. Dedicated to fostering and promoting free and ethical communication, the NCA promotes the widespread appreciation of the importance of communication in public and private life, the application of competent communication to improve the quality of human life and relationships, and the use of knowledge about communication to solve human problems. The NCA supports inclusiveness and diversity among our faculties, within our membership, in the workplace, and in the classroom; the NCA supports and promotes policies that fairly encourage this diversity and inclusion.
